

The Original Dutch Joomla!Days!

Conference & Expo | Conf Center Woudschoten 15th - 17th of April 2016

The Dutch Joomla Days have been held successfully in the Netherlands since 2006 and is the longest running Joomla day event in the World. Last year we had our 10th edition anniversary and again we got great feedback from our visitors.

"The 10th edition of the Joomla!Days Netherlands was really amazing. A heartfelt thanks to the #jd15nl team" – Sarah Watz, President of Open Source Matters Inc.

"JoomlaDay NL was the BEST! The venue, location, food, meeting rooms, hotel accommodations, and social events were all so perfect. I can't think of anything that needs improving. Speakers and sessions were excellent. I enjoyed everything immensely, and was amazed at the organization. The consideration shown to the speakers surpasses anything I've ever seen - I was not expecting it but am very appreciative - THANK YOU SO MUCH. The Dutch Joomla community is so warm and welcoming and interesting to talk to. I will never forget it." – Alice Grevet, OSM Board Secretary

In April 2016, Joomla! designers, developers, site creators, professionals and community members will come together in a beautiful location to attend the Dutch Joomla!Days. The Dutch Joomla Days are about sharing knowledge, eating stroopwafels and connecting Joomla people.

Conference Overview

Date: April 15th - 17th 2016

Location: Conference Center Woudschoten, Zeist

Attendees: About 300 each day

Origin: Belgium, Netherlands and a variety of international visitors and speakers

Language: Dutch, and English by international speakers

The venue is the best of it's kind for this type of conference. Hotel, restaurant, main arena and breakout rooms are all in the same area. It does not have any outside distractions, except for the beautiful forrest. It's an all Joomla weekend for most attendees!

Friday 15th April 2016, we start in the afternoon with the Bug squashing session and in the evening we have the 'meet and greet' with keynote speakers, the Joomla!Days team and other interested parties.

Both conference days, Saturday and Sunday, will offer keynote and parallel sessions. At the end of the first day we always have a shared "white cloth" dinner with many of the attendees, sponsors, speakers and the organizing team off course. A hotel room at the Conference Center is advised for the opportunity to relax after this first Joomla!day. The second day will be concluded with an informal reception.

The Joomla!Days schedule and ticket sales will commence at the end of 2015.

Sponsoring Offers

The Joomla!Days are enabled by volunteers, the Joomla!community, and of course our sponsors! The Dutch Joomla!Days are being organised on a non-profit basis. We are looking for funds to secure the venue, food and drinks for the event.

The Dutch Joomla!Days focuses on Dutch and Belgium visitors. Nevertheless international brand awareness should be considered as well, since we draw (website) visitors from all over the world.

The Dutch Joomla!Days are of interest to webhosting companies, extension developers, Joomla! professionals and sponsors with an interest in the Dutch language market. It is also a good opportunity if you are thinking about recruiting or finding experts in a particular area.
